Hub City Railroad Museum Presents

Mr. & Mrs. Santa Claus

Saturday December 19, 2026
From 11:00 am to 1:00 pm

Hub City RR Museum Caboose
298 Magnolia Street
Spartanburg, South Carolina

Bring your child to see Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus free at the Hub City Railroad Museum caboose! Photos of your child talking to Santa will be available on line on the museum web site.

You can also see artifacts of area railroading in our museum; learn why Spartanburg is called the Hub City, the importance of the Southern Railway Hayne shops, and see the only operating railroad tunnel in the state of South Carolina.

View our new displays on Operation Lifesaver railroad safety. See a headlight used on a helper locomotive that ran up the Saluda grade from Spartanburg to Asheville.

You may even be able to see a real freight train go by on the Norfolk Southern mainline.
